

YOUR PURPOSE BLUEPRINT

How Scientific Hand Analysis Impacts Personal And Professional Success

Program Description:

How would your life change if you...

Experienced more joy, meaning, and fulfillment in life and work?

Were no longer bored, stuck, or feeling off-track?

Had access to a powerful and accurate assessment tool to help you manage and lead more effectively?

Jayne Sanders will present provocative details about the fascinating, life-changing technology of Scientific Hand Analysis featured in a FORBES article about her and the accuracy of her work.

It is NOT palm-reading or fortune-telling....many therapists, counselors, and coaches use this profound, complex, and cathartic tool. Clients use the words mind-blowing, shockingly accurate, amazing, and life-changing to describe this neurotechnology assessment tool.

Come join us for an unforgettable event!

"If you belong to a group that values unique and provocative programs, hire Jayne Sanders. She is a warm, engaging professional and obviously an experienced speaker. I was captivated, as were our members, by her high energy, knowledge, and humor. Her program about Purpose and Scientific Hand Analysis is truly fascinating for any audience, especially for professionals. It speaks to both personal and professional development and success. You will be very happy if you invite Jayne to speak to your group!"
